Reflection

We are not debtors to the flesh. (Romans 8:12)

Whether it's a mortgage, a loan from a family member, credit cards, or something else, most of us have some experience of being debtors. We feel the burden of knowing our creditors have some degree of power over us. At times it can feel like having a heavy yoke tied to our shoulders. We also know how freeing it is to be released from a debt. Making that final payment feels so good that we just want to celebrate!

In today's second reading, St. Paul uses this image of indebtedness to encourage us: "We are not debtors to the flesh" (Romans 8:12). The flesh—that part of you that is attracted to sin—has no more power over you. Because you have been baptized into Jesus' death and resurrection, you have died and risen with him. You have died to sin and no longer owe it any allegiance. Raised up with Christ, you now have a way out when temptation arises.

Think how wonderful it feels to walk through a temptation and come out on the other side unharmed. Or think about how comforting it is to know that you don't have to be bound by guilt or destined to repeat your past sins.

Of course, this is easier said than done. We know how strong our fallen desires can be, especially when it comes to habitual sins that have woven their way into our lives. But Paul is announcing a truth that can sustain us if we should fall into sin, just as it can inspire us in the midst of temptation.

So if you lose a battle here or there, you can pray, "Lord, you know how weak I am, but I believe that this sin does not define me. Thank you, Jesus, for abolishing my debt to the flesh!"

Jesus has broken the yoke of sin. So take up his yoke—the yoke of faith and trust—and let him give you rest (Matthew 11:29). Let his good news wash over you today: you are not bound to sin. You don't owe it anything!

"All praise to you, Jesus, for setting me free from the flesh!" (Word Among Us)

With Park County seeing ever-increasing numbers of positive Covid-19 cases, we ask for everyone's cooperation in following the protocol that has been in place since re-opening St. Anthony's. Everyone must wear a face mask when there are more than 2 people in the Church---this includes during Eucharistic Adoration!! Please wash hands or sanitize often. The Eucharist will only be distributed on the hand.

The Sunday obligation remains dispensed. Also, if you are ill or high-risk, please stay home. The Live-Stream Mass will continue at 9am on Sunday mornings.
