

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 2, 2020

Readings

First Reading Is 55:1-3

Second Reading Rom 8:35, 37-39

Gospel Mt 14:13-21

Reflection

In all these things we conquer overwhelmingly. (Romans 8:37)

Julius Caesar. Alexander the Great. Napoleon Bonaparte. Genghis Khan. What do these men have in common? They were among the world's greatest conquerors. They waged military campaigns that took them far and wide, forming mighty empires along the way.

Would you include Jesus in that list? Or St. Paul? Or yourself, for that matter? We don't think of Christ, or Christians in general, as conquerors. Jesus died an ignoble death at the hands of the Romans. St. Paul was beheaded by the same empire. They looked more like the conquered than conquerors. Even today many Christians are martyred by those in power.

And yet through his sacrifice on the cross and his resurrection from the dead, Jesus conquered the greatest enemies of all: sin and death. And because of our baptism into Christ, that's a victory we all share in—no matter what befalls us in this life.

Paul's words must have comforted the early Christians whenever they experienced persecution for their faith. Even when it looked like they were "losing," they knew they were actually "winning." They trusted that not even the worst calamity could separate them from Jesus (Romans 8:39)!

These verses can bring you comfort as well. You may be experiencing the kind of anguish and distress that St. Paul described. Or maybe you are repeatedly "losing" to a certain temptation. Whatever the case, know that as you cling to the Lord, you will "win" in the end. One day Jesus will welcome you into his heavenly kingdom, and everything will be made right and beautiful.

Until then, remember that God will never separate himself from you; his love is too strong, too real and solid. And through that love, you too will triumph over sin, death, and all the trials of life. You too will be a conqueror.

"Jesus, may I never be separated from your love!"
(The Word Among Us)

This summer, Fr. Rick Malloy, S.J., has been offering talks on Thursday nights on movies and songs that elucidate the themes of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. Two more nights remain: July 30 and August 6, in the Church at 7pm.. Each talk will be 30-40 mins followed by Q&A. Zoom access will be available for those who cannot attend in person. See how we can search for and find God in all things. Grace can be discerned and learned in experiences of movies like Gran Torino, Places in the Heart, and It's a Wonderful Life, and in songs like "The Sounds of Silence,"

"Christmas in the Trenches," and "What a Wonderful World."

Thank you for your generous support of gifts to Living and Giving in Christ: Unity in Diocesan Ministries 2020 appeal! For those who have not yet pledged, please consider doing so. You may donate online at www.livingandgivinginchrist.org. Please be mindful that to meet our goals, our shortfalls are taken from our reserves.

Wyoming Catholic Ministries Foundation announces new officers

The Wyoming Catholic Ministries Foundation announced new officers and an addition of a new member to the board of directors, following elections on July 22. We also mourn the passing of Fr. Carl Beavers, a beloved priest and member of the WCMF Board who dedicated his life to serving Christ across the faith community of Wyoming.

Gay Woodhouse, of Cheyenne, was elected as president. She is an attorney with Woodhouse, Roden, and Nethercott. Gay served as Wyoming's first female Attorney General and has been on the board of WCMF for more than 10 years.

Fr. Carl Beavers has served numerous parishes throughout the state and dutifully served the Diocese of Cheyenne. Sadly, he passed away just one day after being elected as Vice-President of WCMF. His passing has cast a wave of sadness not only in our state, but across the nation.

Bob Grady of Wilson was elected as Treasurer. He is an American venture capitalist, private equity investor, and former public official. He has worked at such leading investment firms as Robertson Stephens, The Carlyle Group, and Gryphon Investors, and for a number of elected officials, including former President George H.W. Bush.

Esther McGann of Laramie was elected as Secretary. Esther is retired from her career as a Financial Planner and planned giving specialist who has served the University of Wyoming. She has served on the WCMF board for 10 years and is active in St. Paul's Newman Center, as well as nonprofits in the Laramie area.

Jeff Marsh, of Torrington has joined the board. He founded an insurance/investment firm and has served as a teacher, athletic coach, and owner of a construction company. He was also recently elected as Chairman of the University of Wyoming Board of Trustees.

The Wyoming Catholic Ministries Foundation is a 501 C (3) organization whose mission is to raise funds and advance the Catholic faith and programs throughout the State of Wyoming. For more information about WCMF, please e-mail jgleason@wycmf.org

MANY THANKS to all of you that have donated masks, wipes, & hand sanitizer to St. Anthony's!!! Your thoughtfulness is very much appreciated and your donations are helpful in keeping parishioners healthy and safe.

Kenneth Scholl

Into your hands, O Lord, we humbly entrust Ken. In this life you embraced him with your tender love; deliver him now from every evil and bid him eternal rest.

A father was reading Bible stories to his young son. He read, "The man named Lot was warned to take his wife and flee out of the city, but his wife looked back and was turned into a pillar of salt."

His son asked, "What happened to the flea?"

*****

After explaining the commandment to honor your father and mother, a Sunday School teacher asked her class if there was a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters.

One boy, the oldest in his family, immediately answered, "Thou shalt not kill."
