When we have run with patience the race,

Printed with the permission from onelicense.com

We shall know the joy of Jesus. In him there is...

Christ before Us

Christ before us, Christ beside us,
Christ to guide us all our days.
He to carry all our sorrows,
he to bear us perfect grace.
Jesus, Savior, Friend and Brother, Intercessor, Son of God.
Save your people in your dying,
and in rising, conquer death.

May we be for one another all that you would have us be.
May we live your law of kindness, love, compassion, charity.
May we climb your holy mountain;
may we see you holy face!
Visit now this humble dwelling;
dwell within this holy place.

Offertory

I want to Walk as a Child of the Light

I want to walk as a child of the light.
I want to follow Jesus.
God set the stars to give light to the world.
The star of my life is Jesus.
In him there is no darkness at all.
The night and the day are both alike.
The Lamb is the light of the city of God.
Shine in my heart, Lord Jesus.

I want to see the brightness of God.

I want to look at Jesus.

Clear sun of righteousness shine on my path,

And show me the way to the Father.

In him there is...

I'm looking for the coming of Christ.

I want to be with Jesus.

Communion

The Supper of the Lord

Refrain
Precious body, precious blood, seen as bread and wine;
here the Lord prepares the feast divine.
Bread of love is broken now, cup of life is poured:
come, share the supper of the Lord.

1. This is the bread of God coming down from heav'n, giving life to us,
to all the world.

2. "I am the living spring of eternal life;
you that drink from me shall not thirst again."

3. "I am the bread of heav'n giving life to you;
you that eat this bread shall never die."

4. "All those who feed on me have their life in me, as I have my life
in the living God."

Sending Forth

River of Glory

Refrain
River of glory, springs of our birth, flood of God's riches poured on the earth.
We are born from the darkness and clothed in the light!
We are bathed in the glory of God!

1. Fountain of mercy,
grace flowing free,
streams of salvation,
spilling with love from a tree!

Entrance

God We Praise You

Christopher Idle

God, we praise you! God, we bless you!

God, we name you sov'reign Lord!

Mighty King whom angels worship,

Father, by your church adored:

All creation shows your glory,

Heav'n and earth draw near your throne,
Singing 'Holy, holy, holy,

Lord of hosts, and God alone!

True apostles, faithful prophets,

Saints who set their world ablaze,

Martyrs, once unknown, unheeded,

Join one growing song of praise,

While your church on earth confesses

One majestic Trinity:

Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

God, our hope eternally.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
NOVEMBER 15, 2020

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Psalm 128

R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Blessed are you who fear the Lord, who walk in his ways!
For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork;
blessed shall you be, and favored. R.
Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
in the recesses of your home;
Your children like olive plants around your table. R.
Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the Lord.
The Lord bless you from Zion:
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life. R.

1 Thessalonians 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security," then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Remain in me as I remain in you, says the Lord.
Whoever remains in me bears much fruit. Jn 15:4a, 5b

Alleluia, alleluia

Matthew 25:14-30 (or Matthew 25:14-15, 19-21)

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one—to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

"After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

(The Apostles' Creed may be used instead of the Nicene Creed.)

Prayer over the Offerings
Grant, O Lord, we pray, that what we offer in the sight of your majesty may obtain for us the grace of being devoted to you and gain us the prize of everlasting happiness.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Communion Antiphon
To be near God is my happiness, to place my hope in God the Lord. Ps 73 (72):28
OR
Amen, I say to you: Whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you will receive, and it shall be given to you, says the Lord. Mk 11:23-24

Prayer after Communion
We have partaken of the gifts of this sacred mystery, humbly imploring, O Lord, that what your Son commanded us to do in memory of him
may bring us growth in charity.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

DAILY MEDITATION: MATTHEW 25:14-30

A man . . . called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. (Matthew 25:14)

Valued at nearly twenty years' wages, even one talent was an astonishing amount of money. So the master was not giving his servants a small gift or an insignificant coin. While we often think these talents represent our own gifts or abilities, a number of commentators suggest that we look at them as the extremely valuable gifts of mercy and love that God lavishes on us. And as we learn from the servant who hid his talent, those gifts multiply, not when we try to guard and keep them, but when we use them!

That's where our first reading comes in. The "worthy wife" of Proverbs 31:10-31 is not just a quaint lesson, or worse, the product of a patriarchal society. Her story is much closer to the servant in today's Gospel who doubled his five talents by using them—by multiplying mercy and love by sharing it.

Look at how she is described: She works busily within her household and does it "with loving hands" (Proverbs 31:13). But she doesn't stop there. "She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy" (31:20). She does not hoard the self-giving love and compassion she has received from God. She generously gives it away, both to her family and to anyone she sees in need.

You see, it's not her charm or beauty that gives her value. It's her fear of the Lord, her reverence for God. It's the way she recognizes the wideness of his mercy and love and imitates him by sharing them. That is what brings her, and her whole family, such joy.

Each one of us has received God's precious gifts of mercy and love. Each of us has the opportunity to open our hands and our hearts to give them away to the people around us. The wife from Proverbs 31 did it. Let's go out and do the same. (Word Among Us)

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Open Holy Hours are: Monday: 11am, 2pm & 6pm; Tuesday: 11am & 6pm; Wednesday: 9am, 10am & 2pm.

Call the Office if you'd like to accept Jesus' invitation to spend time in his presence, 587-3388. "Our age needs to rediscover the fruitfulness of silence, in order to overcome the dissipation of sounds, images and chatter that too often prevent the voice of God from being heard." (St. John Paul II, 1998)

Dear Religious Education Students and Parents,

I pray your days are going well and that all of you are in great health. Heaven knows that this year has been very hard on all of us in many ways, spiritually, emotionally, physically, economically, and health-wise. I join with you in prayer, many times a day, that everything will soon get better under God's Divine Providence.

I spoke with our Pastor, Father Clark, this week regarding the Covid-19 Protocols and Restrictions. Fr. Clark highly suggested that we continued without in-person classes until after Thanksgiving and then reevaluate. He said that the Covid spike is still increasing every day and that all hospitals within several hundred miles were full or almost full. As we were talking, Fr. Clark received a message from St. Patrick's in Casper that they had to suspend everything except for the celebration of Mass. I agreed with Fr. Clark that his suggestion/decision was prudent; we don't want to endanger the health of our students, our families, our parishioners and especially our elderly.

God Bless everyone of you and I hope to see you back here soon. Have a wonderful Thanksgiving Holiday! Sincerely, Deacon Rick Moser

"BEING CATHOLIC" Class & Discussion

Join us for a Lively Class and Discussion of the Catholic Faith. This week's discussion, and next week, will be focused on those who are interested in the Catholic Faith, who wish to join the Catholic Faith or who are returning to the Catholic Faith. We will discuss how life, history, religion and God are all interconnected. Our discussions will cover what we believe, what we think and why. All your questions will also be answered. You will be given many handouts as well.

The class will be on Thursdays from 6:30pm until 8:00pm in the Joan of Arc Room in the Parish Center. The next class will be on Thursday, Nov. 19th. Classes will be led by Deacon Rick Moser. Please Join us, No Strings Attached!

Do you know someone from our Parish who is homebound and/or isolated? Our Diocese is attempting an outreach this Advent Season called, Beacons of Hope in the Night, to all those who are away from the church for whatever reason. In this very strange and uncertain time, it's ever more important to let people know that they're being thought of. Please call the Office and let us know or reach out on your own!

Jaime Morales, a member of Bishop Maurice F. Burke Council 4031, leads his wife, Laura, and daughters in praying the rosary at St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church in Cody, Wyo.

K of C International Family of the Year Exemplifies Commitment to Parish, Evangelization

EVERY NIGHT before Jaime Morales heads to bed, he asks himself one question: “Did I do something for somebody today?”

Jaime’s wife of nearly 30 years, Laura, and their four daughters — Abigail, 24; Jessica, 21; Victoria, 18; and Nathalia, 17 — share this commitment to service. Together they were recognized as this year’s Knights of Columbus International Family of the Year for their witness of faith and support of their parish and community.

Jaime and Laura grew up in Mexico, but today the family lives in Cody, Wyo. They belong to St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Parish, and Jaime is a member of Bishop Maurice F. Burke Council 4031.

Council member Ken Stockwell — now a member of the Knights of Columbus Board of Directors — invited Jaime to join more than 15 years ago.

“I asked Jaime to be a Knight because he was the epitome of a Catholic gentleman,” Stockwell said. “Jaime has a rich, deep faith, which he shares. He just was the perfect candidate to be a Knight of Columbus.”

As father to four girls, Jaime has found encouragement and support in the Knights’ Catholic brotherhood.

“I find friends. I find brothers. I find truly good friends there,” Jaime said.

When the Morales family moved to Cody in the early 2000s, St. Anthony’s didn’t have any Hispanic Catholic outreach, but they soon changed that.

The Morales family helped start a monthly Spanish-language Sunday Mass. When it began, Laura was the music coordinator and the four Morales daughters were altar servers.

The family also started an annual Cinco de Mayo fundraising dinner, organized celebrations for the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, incorporated Las Posadas into the parish’s Christmas celebrations, and taught English as a second language courses.

The Morales family has also assisted with other council activities, such as a live Stations of the Cross, and helped with the day-to-day needs of St. Anthony Parish. Jaime landscapes the church grounds, and Laura provides cleaning services for the parish buildings.

“They’re a wonderful example of Catholic family,” said their pastor, Father Vernon Clark. “They are extraordinary people and I’m blessed by them. So is our parish.”

Jaime dreams of one day moving back to Mexico and helping strengthen the Knights of Columbus in his home country, where the Order was first established in 1905.

“The Knights of Columbus is like another school. It’s another education,” he said. “I want to take this school and start more councils around my country.” ♦

Mass Schedule:

Cody-St. Anthony

Tues-Fri: 12:15pm

Please note that Sunday 9am Mass continues to be live-streamed. You may find the link on our website: www.stanthonycody.org. Bishop Steven has extended the dispensation from the Sunday obligation until March 26, 2021.

Advent begins November 29th. The area priests will not be offering a Penance Service this year due to Covid. Please call the Office to arrange for a Confession time. Effective Dec. 1st, Father Clark & Father Heston will be available after the 8:30am Mass Tues-Saturday until 11am. Both priests will be available 2-5pm Tues-Fri. Additionally, both priests can hear Confessions on Saturday 3-4pm. Confessions will be heard in the Office and by appointment only.

Father Rick Malloy heads back to Baltimore on Dec. 16th. We have certainly enjoyed seeing him in seasons other than the summer and have appreciated his many contributions to our parish. His presence enabled us to offer additional Masses to accommodate people. Unfortunately, effective Dec. 20th, there will no longer be a 5pm Sunday Mass. We will be incorporating a reservation system in the next few weeks wherein folks reserve spots for Mass. We are still only able to have 120 people per Mass.
