Entrance

The King Shall Come When Morning Dawns
MORNING SONG

1. The King shall come when morning dawns
And light triumphant breaks,
When beauty gilds the eastern hills
And life to joy awakes.

2. Not, as of old, a little child,
To bear, and fight, and die,
But crowned with glory like the sun
That lights the morning sky.

3. O brighter than the rising morn
When he, victorious, rose
And left the lonesome place of death,
Despite the rage of foes.

Offertory

Maranatha

Refrain

Maranatha, we long for your peace.
Maranatha, we long for your mercy.
Maranatha, we long for your coming,
O God.

1. In your image you have fashioned us, in the garden you made us;
you have given us your breath of life,
voice to praise your name,
voice to praise your name.

2. In our weakness we have turned from you, turned from light to the darkness,
ever longing for salvation,
O Lord of light,
O Lord of light.

3. In your love you have sent your Son, your salvation for ev'ryone;

Communion

Christ, Be Our Light / Sé Nuestra Luz

1. Longing for light, we wait in darkness.
Longing for truth, we turn to you.
Make us your own, your holy people, light for the world to see.

Refrain

Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts.
Shine through the darkness.
Christ, be our light!
Shine in your church gathered today.

2. Longing for peace, our world is troubled.
Longing for hope, many despair.
Your word alone has pow'r to save us.
Make us your living voice.

3. Longing for food, many are hungry.
Longing for water, many still thirst.
Make us your bread, broken for others, shared until all are fed.

4. Longing for shelter, many are homeless.
Longing for warmth, many are cold.
Make us your building, sheltering others, walls made of living stone.

Sending Forth

Soon and Very Soon

Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King.
Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King.
Soon and very soon, we are going to see the King.
Hallelujah, hallelujah We're going to see the King

No more cying there, we are going to see the King
No more cying there, we are going to see the King
No more cying there, we are going to see the King
Hallelujah, hallelujah We're going to see the King

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT
NOVEMBER 29, 2020

Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7

You, Lord, are our father, our redeemer you are named forever.
Why do you let us wander, O Lord, from your ways, and harden our hearts so that we fear you not?
Return for the sake of your servants,
the tribes of your heritage.
Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, with the mountains quaking before you, while you wrought awesome deeds we could not hope for,
such as they had not heard of from of old.
No ear has ever heard, no eye ever seen, any God but you doing such deeds for those who wait for him.
Would that you might meet us doing right,
that we were mindful of you in our ways!
Behold, you are angry, and we are sinful;
all of us have become like unclean people,
all our good deeds are like polluted rags;
we have all withered like leaves,
and our guilt carries us away like the wind.
There is none who calls upon your name,
who rouses himself to cling to you;
for you have hidden your face from us and have delivered us up to our guilt.
Yet, O Lord, you are our father;
we are the clay and you the potter:
we are all the work of your hands.

Psalms 80

R. Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved.

O shepherd of Israel, hearken, from your throne upon the cherubim, shine forth.
Rouse your power,
and come to save us. R.
Once again, O Lord of hosts, look down from heaven, and see;
take care of this vine,
and protect what your right hand has planted,
the son of man whom you yourself made strong. R.
May your help be with the man of your right hand,
with the son of man whom you yourself made strong.
Then we will no more withdraw from you;

give us new life, and we will call upon your name. R.

1 Corinthians 1:3-9

Brothers and sisters: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

I give thanks to my God always on your account for the grace of God bestowed on you in Christ Jesus, that in him you were enriched in every way, with all discourse and all knowledge, as the testimony to Christ was confirmed among you, so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will keep you firm to the end, irreproachable on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, and by him you were called to fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia.

Show us, Lord, your love;
and grant us your salvation. Ps 85:8

Alleluia, alleluia.

Mark 13:33-37

Jesus said to his disciples: "Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come. It is like a man traveling abroad. He leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his own work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch. Watch, therefore; you do not know when the Lord of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning. May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to all: 'Watch!'"

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

DAILY MEDITATION: 1 CORINTHIANS 1:3-9

I give thanks . . . for the grace of God bestowed on you in Christ Jesus. (1 Corinthians 1:4)

Welcome to Advent! Whether it's your first time entering this holy season or your ninetieth, be assured that God, your heavenly Father, is eager to bestow his grace on you.

As Paul says in today's second reading, God has already poured his grace on you. He has given you access to every spiritual gift as you wait for Jesus to reveal himself to you (1 Corinthians 1:7). And God wants to do even more. He wants you to have a great Advent! He wants to make this season into a time for you to grow closer to him and come to know him better.

That doesn't necessarily mean these days before Christmas will be easy. Your faith might deepen, or you might receive unexpected blessings. But you might also experience hardship or setbacks. Yet no matter what happens, God will reward whatever effort you put into your Advent preparations. That's because he wants nothing more than for you to deepen your relationship with Jesus. That's the grace God is offering you this season.

So dig in! Start by committing to spend more time in prayer this month. Use this magazine to read the Mass readings and meditations with an open heart. Participate in the life of your parish, maybe through Eucharistic Adoration or a service project. Pick up a spiritual book or do an Advent Bible study to develop your understanding of your faith.

Above everything else, be hopeful: "God is faithful, and by him you were called to fellowship with his Son" (1 Corinthians 1:9). That's what this season is all about.

"Father, I want to experience your blessing as I wait and watch and prepare this Advent."

Our Parish has renewed its Formed subscription. Please read the enclosed sheet on how to access this trove of Catholic resources!

Why (and How) to Return to Confession

Peace Of Mind

This Advent, the Register encourages readers to go to confession and recommend it to friends and family. The guide provided here can help.

As Pope Francis has reminded us, when speaking about God's mercy, "In the confessional ... is an encounter with Jesus."

Jesus "donates to us the peace that only he gives," he said.

Pope Francis also explained that being ashamed of sins is "not only natural; it's a virtue that helps prepare us for God's forgiveness."

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops offers the following Examination of Conscience based on the Ten Commandments (online at USCCB.org):

1 I am the Lord your God: You shall not have strange Gods before me. Have I treated people, events or things as more important than God?

Step 1 Examine your conscience. See the USCCB guide on this page.

2 You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain. Have my words, actively or passively, put down God, the Church or people?

Step 2 When you enter the confessional or go behind the screen, the priest will bless you and greet you.

3 Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day. Do I go to Mass every Sunday (or Saturday vigil) and on holy days of obligation (Jan. 1; the Ascension; Aug. 15; Nov. 1; Dec. 8; Dec. 25)? Do I avoid, when possible, work that impedes worship to God, joy for the Lord's Day and proper relaxation of mind and body? Do I look for ways to spend time with family or in service on Sunday?

Step 3 Make the Sign of the Cross and say, "Bless me, Father, for I have sinned. It has been [give weeks, months or years] since my last confession."

4 Honor your father and your mother.

Do I show my parents due respect? Do I seek to maintain good communication with my parents where possible? Do I criticize them for lacking skills I think they should have?

Step 4 Confess your sins, most importantly any mortal sins. If you need help examining your conscience, the priest will assist you.

5 You shall not kill. Have I harmed another through physical, verbal or emotional means, including gossip or manipulation of any kind?

Step 5 The priest will assign you a penance and perhaps offer a word of advice/encouragement.

6 You shall not commit adultery. Have I respected the physical and sexual dignity of others and of myself?

7 You shall not steal.

Have I taken or wasted time or resources that belonged to another?

Step 6 Make an Act of Contrition, such as this traditional version: "God, I am heartily sorry for having offended you, and I detest all my sins because I dread the loss of heaven and the pains of hell; but most of all because they offend you, my God, who are all good and deserving of all my love. I firmly resolve with the help of your grace to confess my sins, do penance and to amend my life."

8 You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Have I gossiped, told lies or embellished stories at the expense of another?

Step 7 Acting in the person of Christ, the priest will absolve you of your sins.

9 You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse.

Have I honored my spouse with my full affection and exclusive love?

10 You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

Am I content with my own means and needs or do I compare myself to others unnecessarily?

Step 8 Do your penance. Then leave the church with the peace of forgiveness — and rejoice!

— Adapted from USCCB.org

What Is Sin?

"Sin is an act contrary to reason. It wounds man's nature and injures human solidarity" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1872).

Mortal vs. Venial

What constitutes "mortal sin"? "For a sin to be mortal, three conditions must together be met: 'Mortal sin is sin whose object is grave matter and which is also committed with full knowledge and deliberate consent'" (Catechism, 1857).

The Catechism continues (1858): "Grave matter is specified by the Ten Commandments, corresponding to the answer of Jesus to the rich young man: 'Do not kill; do not commit adultery; do not steal; do not bear false witness; do not defraud; honor your father and your mother.' The gravity of sins is more or less great: Murder is graver than theft. One must also take into account who is wronged: Violence against parents is in itself graver than violence against a stranger."

In addition, "Mortal sin requires full knowledge and complete consent. It presupposes knowledge of the sinful character of the act, of its opposition to God's law. It also implies a consent sufficiently deliberate to be a personal choice. Feigned ignorance and hardness of heart do not diminish, but rather increase, the voluntary character of a sin" (1859).

What is "venial sin"? As the Catechism explains, "One commits venial sin when, in a less serious matter, he does not observe the standard prescribed by the moral law or when he disobeys the moral law in a grave matter but without full knowledge or without complete consent" (1862).

Shortly before the outbreak of World War II, Saint Maximilian Kolbe wrote a letter to his followers. The purpose of this letter was to exhort his disciples to prepare themselves for the approaching feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8.

But it also showed them how to receive forgiveness for sin in the coming war, where priests were scarce and it was hard to receive sacramental confession.

He wrote: "Whoever can, should receive the Sacrament of Penance. Whoever cannot, because of prohibiting circumstances, should cleanse his soul by acts of perfect contrition: i.e., the sorrow of a loving child who does not consider so much the pain or reward as he does the pardon from his father and mother to whom he has brought displeasure."
