

Christmas Prelude

A song was heard at Christmas
To wake the midnight sky
A Savior's birth and peace on earth
And praise to God on high

DECEMBER 27, 2020

SIR 3:2-6, 12-14

God sets a father in honor over his children;
a mother's authority he confirms over her sons.
Whoever honors his father atones for sins,
and preserves himself from them.
When he prays, he is heard;
he stores up riches who reveres his mother.
Whoever honors his father is gladdened by children,
and, when he prays, is heard.
Whoever reveres his father will live a long life;
he who obeys his father brings comfort to his mother.

My son, take care of your father when he is old;
grieve him not as long as he lives.
Even if his mind fail, be considerate of him;
revile him not all the days of his life;
kindness to a father will not be forgotten,
firmly planted against the debt of your sins
—a house raised in justice to you.

Responsorial Psalm

PS 128:1-2, 3, 4-5.

R. (cf. 1) Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.
Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD,
who walks in his ways!
For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork;
blessed shall you be, and favored.
R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.
Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
in the recesses of your home;
your children like olive plants
around your table.
R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.
Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD.
The LORD bless you from Zion:
may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.
R. Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.

COL 3:12-21

Brothers and sisters:

Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved,
heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another,
if one has a grievance against another;
as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do.
And over all these put on love,
that is, the bond of perfection.
And let the peace of Christ control your hearts,
the peace into which you were also called in one body.
And be thankful.
Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly,
as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another,
singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs
with gratitude in your hearts to God.
And whatever you do, in word or in deed,
do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,
giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Wives, be subordinate to your husbands,
as is proper in the Lord.
Husbands, love your wives,
and avoid any bitterness toward them.
Children, obey your parents in everything,
for this is pleasing to the Lord.
Fathers, do not provoke your children,
so they may not become discouraged.

Alleluia

COL 3:15A, 16A

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Let the peace of Christ control your hearts;
let the word of Christ dwell in you richly.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

LK 2:22-40

When the days were completed for their purification
according to the law of Moses,
They took him up to Jerusalem
to present him to the Lord,
just as it is written in the law of the Lord,
Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons,

in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord.

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon.

This man was righteous and devout,
awaiting the consolation of Israel,
and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord.

He came in the Spirit into the temple;
and when the parents brought in the child Jesus
to perform the custom of the law in regard to him,
He took him into his arms and blessed God, saying:

“Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word,
for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you prepared in sight of all the peoples,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles,
and glory for your people Israel.”

The child’s father and mother were amazed at what was said about him;
and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother,

“Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be contradicted
—and you yourself a sword will pierce—
so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.”

There was also a prophetess, Anna,
the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher.

She was advanced in years,
having lived seven years with her husband after her marriage,
and then as a widow until she was eighty-four.

She never left the temple,
but worshiped night and day with fasting and prayer.

And coming forward at that very time,
she gave thanks to God and spoke about the child to all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had fulfilled all the prescriptions
of the law of the Lord,
they returned to Galilee,
to their own town of Nazareth.

The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom;
and the favor of God was upon him.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

READINGS FOR SOLEMNITY OF MARY, HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

NM 6:22-27

The LORD said to Moses:

“Speak to Aaron and his sons and tell them:

This is how you shall bless the Israelites.

Say to them:

The LORD bless you and keep you!

The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you!

The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!

So shall they invoke my name upon the Israelites,
and I will bless them.”

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

R/ (2a) May God bless us in his mercy.

May God have pity on us and bless us;
may he let his face shine upon us.

So may your way be known upon earth;
among all nations, your salvation.

R/ May God bless us in his mercy.

May the nations be glad and exult
because you rule the peoples in equity;
the nations on the earth you guide.

R/ May God bless us in his mercy.

May the peoples praise you, O God;
may all the peoples praise you!

May God bless us,
and may all the ends of the earth fear him!

R/ May God bless us in his mercy.

Reading 2

GAL 4:4-7

Brothers and sisters:

When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son,
born of a woman, born under the law,
to ransom those under the law,
so that we might receive adoption as sons.

As proof that you are sons,
God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts,
crying out, “Abba, Father!”

So you are no longer a slave but a son,
and if a son then also an heir, through God.

Alleluia

HEB 1:1-2

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets;
in these last days, he has spoken to us through the Son.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

LK 2:16-21

The shepherds went in haste to Bethlehem and found Mary and Joseph,

and the infant lying in the manger.
When they saw this,
they made known the message
that had been told them about this child.
All who heard it were amazed
by what had been told them by the shepherds.
And Mary kept all these things,
reflecting on them in her heart.
Then the shepherds returned,
glorifying and praising God
for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them.
When eight days were completed for his circumcision,
he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel
before he was conceived in the womb.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Please look at the schedule for available Holy Hours. Ideally, each hour should have at least 2 Adorers. Prayerfully consider spending one Hour in the presence of our Lord.

Open Holy Hours are: Monday: 11am, 2pm & 6pm; Tuesday: 11am, 1pm & 6pm; Wednesday: 9am, 10am & 2pm.

“In a world where there is so much noise, so much bewilderment, there is a need for silent adoration of Jesus concealed in the Host. Be assiduous in the prayer of adoration and teach it to the faithful. It is a source of comfort and light, particularly to those who are suffering.” Pope Emeritus Benedict

Call the Office if you'd like to accept Jesus' invitation to spend time in His presence, 587-3388.

PLEASE remember to pray for our church family members that are living in the Long Term Care Center and Brookdale: Mary Ann Metzger, Sylvia Gates, Marilyn Meyer, Alice Fales, Jeanne Pomajzl, Stacy Jourdan, Donna Brown, Nellie Grosz and John Case. “Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land the Lord your God is giving you.”

Exodus 20:12

Let's also keep their families who miss them ever so much in our prayers as well. Let us pray for all those that are ill or suffering in any way. Please, let's also pray for all those that are in the Diaconate program especially St. Anthony's Tom Caudle, that the Lord continues to be with them and keeps them safe & well.

What's the best Christmas prayer you have ever experienced?

A mystical midnight Mass? Quiet adoration before the manger scene, lit by the glow of the tree in your living room? Watching "It's a Wonderful Life" for the 1,000th time? Taking your small children to see Santa and enjoying their delight on Christmas morning?

Donating to the needy rather than splurge on unneeded gifts? Hearing "Do You Hear What I Hear"? the wonderful call for peace written in the wake of the 1962 Cuban missile crisis? Just holding a loved one?

Mine was an hour one Christmas day a few years ago.

For many years, my Christmas routine consisted of preaching and presiding at a 5 p.m. Christmas Eve Mass at the university; later, a smaller home Mass for friends; usually a morning Mass at a parish; and then I'd attend the 11:30 a.m. Mass with the Jesuits in our infirmary at St. Joe's University. Wonderful prayer times all.

Then, it was off to visit four homes of families who are so good to me. The last home was with my elderly mother to a huge family's feast who always welcomed the two of us to their raucous and loving celebration.

Late Christmas night, tired and stuffed, I would make the examen prayer of St. Ignatius, just stunned by how lucky I am to have so many people with which to celebrate the mystery of the birth of Christ, God incarnate among us.

A couple of years ago, my mother had died, and one family I usually visited was out of town. All of a sudden, it was 1 p.m. Christmas Day, and I had nowhere I had to be until later in the afternoon.

I went into the house chapel and settled down. Slowly, I read Luke 2:1-20, lingering on the words. Caesar Augustus. David. Mary and Joseph. The time came. She gave birth to her firstborn son. Shepherds. Great fear. "Do not be afraid!" trumpets the angel. Good news. Great joy. A savior has been born for you. An infant. Wrapped in swaddling clothes. Glory!

Entering into the classic Ignatian method of contemplation, I imagined myself in the Gospel scene. My imagination was filled with the quiet rustling of the manger. An ox and donkey snort, their breath visible in the frigid air. A few mice dart around in the straw. The musty smell of earthen floor. A small charcoal fire reminds me of the same in John 18 and 21.

I gaze on Mary holding Jesus. She looks tired, really exhausted. She's far from home, no gal pals to help her. Joseph too looks weary. He seems a bit awed and almost fearful. How is he going to care for these two? Does he already sense the terror of Herod?

As I just sit there, being present to the moment, suddenly, Mary turns to me and asks, "Do you want to hold him?"

She gently places the sleeping baby Jesus, wrapped in swaddling clothes, in my arms.

As I hold the savior of the world, all tiny and baby bald, smaller than a loaf of bread, I don't do anything. Nor say anything. Silence is often the best conduit of God.

There isn't any tremendous grace given, nor any startling insight into the mystery and majesty of divinity. What pervades my consciousness is a sense of peace.

A deeper realization of the vulnerability of God dawns on me. A welling up of gratitude for the gift of faith, and hope for our world, moves in me. Love for Jesus, and a sense of connection to Mary and Joseph as they accept their mission, surges within me. The reality of Emmanuel, God with us, takes hold in my heart.

Carl Sandburg once said, "A baby is God's opinion that life should go on." This baby is God's pledge and promise that life will go on forever. Hold on to him.

Christmas in the chapel, holding the baby Jesus -- best Christmas prayer ever.

St. Anthony Religious Education Tidings

May the Eternal Peace of Christ be with you &
Your Family this Christmas Season &
Have a Wonderful New Year!

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES

We will begin Religious Education Classes again after the Christmas Holidays:

Kindergarten through 5th Grade will meet on, Wednesday, January 6th. Class time is 4:00pm to 5:15pm.

Middle School and High School Classes will also meet on Wednesday, January 6th - from 6:30 until 8:00 pm. Grades 6th through 12th will meet in Brady Hall. We will be watching the "Search" Series. We will break into two groups if too many attend for safe-distancing. One group will move to the St. Ignatius Room in the Center.

ALL STUDENTS & TEACHERS must wear masks at all times unless, and until, given permission to remove them by the Teachers - once safe-distancing is achieved. Some classes, depending on the number of students and the room size, will have to keep the masks in place. IF YOU DO NOT want to wear a mask, please, do not attend.

Remember, if you are not feeling well or if you have, or "may have," been exposed to someone who has the virus, please do not attend class. Thank you!

FORMED.ORG - We, as a parish, have subscribed to FORMED.ORG. The Catholic Faith on Demand. You should see a full-paged instruction sheet on the Parish Website: stanthonycody.org)

Please, follow the instructions and sign in. The Parish has already paid for this wonderful resource. Your religious education teachers will use this program and send you links for movies, etc. to watch. This resource is for all parishioners.

"BEING CATHOLIC" Class & Discussion

Join us for a Lively Class and Discussion of the Catholic Faith. We will discuss how life, history, religion and God are all interconnected. Our discussions will cover what we believe, what we think and what we do. All your questions will also be answered. You will be given many handouts as well.

Our next class will be on Thursday, January 7th, from 6:30pm until 8:00pm in the Joan of Arc Room in the Parish Center. Classes will be led by Deacon Rick Moser. Please Join us, No Strings Attached!

The Lost Purse

A lady lost her handbag in the bustle of Christmas shopping. It was found by an honest little boy and returned to her. Looking in her purse, she commented, "Hmmm.... That's funny. When I lost my bag there was a $20 bill in it. Now there are twenty $1 bills."

The boy quickly replied, "That's right, lady. The last time I found a lady's purse, she didn't have any change for a reward."
