TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
SEPTEMBER 24, 2023

First Reading	Is 55:6-9
Second Reading	Phil 1:20c-24, 27a
Gospel	Mt 20:1-16a

Written by
THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 55:6-9 | Phil 1:20c-24, 27a | Mt 20:1-16a

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today's readings should bring us great joy. They are a reminder that our Lord may have high standards, but he is also "generous in forgiving" and "near to all who call upon him." In the Gospel, we hear the parable of the laborers in the vineyard. Some work all day while others arrive at the last hour. However, all are paid the same. Similarly, we can all receive God's heavenly reward - whether we are faithful Catholics since birth or converts in our final hour. This parable may evoke mixed feelings for those who see themselves as the laborers who have toiled all day and wonder why their reward is not greater. But rather than making us jealous, this parable should make us rejoice: How wonderful that everyone has the opportunity for everlasting life with the Lord! And what great comfort to know that if we falter and lose our way, it is never too late to return to God.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Sometimes, knowing that we are the recipients of God's bountiful mercy, we can be tempted to lead a life focused mostly on worldly pleasures. To paraphrase St. Augustine: Make me holy Lord ... just not yet! Of course we know this isn't the right attitude or approach to life, but it's certainly tempting. Let's return to the message of the Gospel for a moment. Yes, the Lord is generous in giving all the workers the same wage. But perhaps equally as important is that we are called to be workers in the Lord's vineyard, and what an honor and privilege that is! Serving in the Lord's kingdom here on earth is not drudgery; it is life-giving and fills us with God's love and grace. Let us recall the words of St. Paul in today's Letter to the Philippians. Although he longs to "depart this life and be with Christ," he knows that staying here on earth means "fruitful labor for me." Let us also strive to keep our eyes on the Lord and labor in his field for as long as we are able.

PRAY The first reading from Isaiah reminds us that the Lord works in ways we can't understand: "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord." Let us ask God this week for the fortitude to reorient our thoughts and ways to his will, not ours, so as to "conduct [ourselves] in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ."

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION, KELLIE EDWARDS

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES will begin on Wednesday, October 4th!

Kindergarten through 5th grade, class time is 4:00pm to 5:15pm. Middle School and High School Class time is 6:30 until 8:00 pm. Registration forms will be emailed to returning families. Forms will also be available in the vestibule of the church beginning September 2nd. This ministry exists because of the willing hearts of volunteers. *If you feel called to help teach religious education, please contact Kellie Edwards at 250-2222.

Children's Liturgy will start back up on in September!! Children's Liturgy of the Word gathers young children, generally ages 3 - 10, for an age appropriate experience of sacred scripture. Children's Liturgy is offered during the Sunday 9:00 Mass on most weekends from September through May. We hear God's word and have a follow up discussion and activity in an environment that is joyful for children. Children are dismissed after the opening prayer and gather in the chapel to hear the readings and a reflection on the Gospel. After a profession of faith and intercessions, children return to Mass during the offering. Children receive a worship bulletin based on the Gospel readings.

This ministry exists because of the willing hearts of volunteers. *If you feel called to help teach Children's Liturgy, please contact Kellie Edwards at 250-2222.

SPECIAL EVENTS MINISTRY

Special Events & Feasts

If you're looking for a unique way to get involved in a ministry at St. Anthony's, this may very well be your opportunity. The Special Events Ministry would assist in the Church & Brady Hall on the special occasions when we have Night of Remembrance, Processions, Appreciation dinners, St. Anthony Feast Day celebration, etc. The time commitment would be minimal throughout the year but extremely valuable. A group of 3-4 individuals would be sufficient to effectively manage this ministry. Please call the Office to express your interest or with any questions.
