Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Is 25:6-10a | Phil 4:12-14, 19-20 | Mt 22:1-14

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I have about 75 first cousins (yes, really!), so I grew up accustomed to large gatherings. “Feasts” in our family were almost an everyday kind of thing. So you can imagine my initial reaction to today’s parable: Why would anyone refuse such a grand invitation? Who doesn’t love a feast? As we know, however, with parables, Jesus is giving us a message that is deeper than it first appears. Today he uses the image of a wedding feast to explain God’s abundant generosity, and the indifference or outright refusal this loving generosity is often met with. Yes, we enjoy sharing food with family and friends, but are we always gracious recipients of God’s love and bounty? Are we prepared, and properly disposed, to receive it? (Think of the graces we receive in the sacraments, especially confession.) The kingdom of heaven is the banquet to which we are all invited, and too often we can become busy with our material lives and not notice this ongoing invitation. Or we push it out of our minds, or grieve about in the wrong garments (of sin, and not grace). Let us open our ears and our hearts to God’s loving invitation, strive to be holy people, and share this gift with those around us.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We learn from today’s readings that the kingdom of heaven can be likened to a sumptuous banquet. Isaiah, in the first reading, says it well, proclaiming, “The Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples a feast of rich food and choice wines.” Isaiah then moves from imagery of food to talk about how God will destroy death forever and wipe away all tears. In other words, God has saved his people, and offers us his constant presence and the gift of eternal life. But we must respond to God’s generosity in the proper manner so we are prepared to enter the kingdom when the time comes. Making our relationship with Jesus our number one priority will prepare us well to receive and respond to this invitation. From this we will see how our other priorities naturally change and how God always provides. As St. Paul says in his Letter to the Philippians: “My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.”

ACTION When you get dressed each morning this week, take a look at what you are wearing spiritually, as well as physically. What does the (spiritual) garment look like? Is it appropriate for a wedding feast? Pray the Act of Contrition (and go to confession if necessary), and then make a conscious effort to repair any faults in your spiritual garment: forgive someone or apologize to someone; pray specifically for someone you do not especially care for; spend time in Eucharistic Adoration.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Eucharistic Adoration is an invitation by Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament to spend time in prayer and presence with Him, to adore Him, to make reparation to His Sacred Heart and to petition Him for our needs. Eucharistic Adoration is a time when one can come face-to-face with Jesus, the Lord of all creation. Jesus looks at us and we look at Him fully present in the Blessed Sacrament. Eucharistic Adoration is an opportunity for us to take time out of our busy lives to come and rest in the Lord.

The following are Holy Hours in need of filling: Monday @ 9am, 2pm & 3pm; Tuesday @ 9am, 3pm & 5pm, Thursday @ noon & Friday @ 11am, noon & 1pm.

– Cardinal Newman

GRIEF SUPPORT WORKSHOP

Grieving with Great HOPE is a FIVE-WEEK grief support workshop using a video on-demand format. If you have lost a spouse, a child (including pregnancy loss), a grandchild, a parent, another family member or a friend, you are encouraged to attend. Presenters will include two priests, as well as John and Sandy O'Shaughnessy from Good Mourning Ministry, a Catholic bereavement organization. Contact the Office, 587-3388, for registration information.

6:30PM TO 8:30PM IN THE ST. IGNATIUS OF LOYOLA ROOM IN THE PARISH CENTER

REGISTRATION IS $20.

TRANSPORTATION WILL BE PROVIDED FOR THOSE WHO NEED IT!!**

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION, KELLIE EDWARDS

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES will began on Wednesday, October 4th! It's not too late to register!

Children's Liturgy will start back up on in September!! Children's Liturgy of the Word gathers young children, generally ages 3 - 10, for an age appropriate experience of sacred scripture. Children's Liturgy is offered during the Sunday 9:00 Mass on most weekends from September through May. We hear God's word and have a follow up discussion and activity in an environment that is joyful for children. Children are dismissed after the opening prayer and gather in the chapel to hear the readings and a reflection on the Gospel. After a profession of faith and intercessions, children return to Mass during the offering. Children receive a worship bulletin based on the Gospel readings.

This ministry exists because of the willing hearts of volunteers. *If you feel called to help teach Children's Liturgy, please contact Kellie Edwards at 250-2222.

Members are the foundation of our church. Through their efforts and financial support, you can share God's message and reach out to our community. We would like to give thanks to those who go above and beyond.

It's heartening to see the community come together to support important causes like this. The KofC Columbus Day Pasta Dinner fundraiser was a great event that not only brings people together but also helps to make a positive impact on families and programs in your community. It's especially meaningful that these efforts align with your Catholic faith, emphasizing the values of charity, community and solidarity. Your community's generosity and dedication to these causes are commendable.

The KofC has a limited number of cannoli still available for sale. If you missed out at the dinner or would like more, please call Chris Lovera @ 307-578-7288.

Tickets for St. Anthony's Preschool annual fundraiser will go on sale on Saturday, Sept. 30 & Sunday, October 1st. Tickets will be available after most Masses in October, in the Office OR from any St. Anthony's Preschool student.

Please consider the purchase of a $20 raffle ticket and enjoy many chances to win throughout the year! Drawings will be held every Monday from Nov. 6th through April 29th. Thank you for your support!
