Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Wis 6:12-16 | 1 Thes 4:13-18 | Mt 25:1-13

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I'll always remember that first Easter after my Dad passed away. It was when the promise of the resurrection truly hit home. Sure, I had always believed in heaven and that everyone had the possibility of spending eternity there, but until my Dad died, it had all been theoretical. Now, it was personal. Someone I loved deeply had left this world, but because of Christ's sacrifice, he had the opportunity to go to paradise, someplace where we will hopefully be reunited someday. I believe that's what St. Paul is talking about in today's second reading. We do "not grieve like the rest, who have no hope." We have hope! We have hope for our family, for our friends - for our very selves! - that we will rise again and spend eternity with the Lord and with those we love. Paul writes elsewhere, "Where, O death, is your sting?" (1 Cor 15:55) The sting of death is sin, Paul says, but Christ has won the victory over it. In being baptized into Christ, we share in that victory, and we are inheritors of the promise of eternal life that comes from death's defeat.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The parable in today's Gospel is a reminder that while Christ has opened the gates of heaven for us, we must be ready to accept that gift and walk through them. In the parable of the ten virgins, we see how all fell asleep while waiting for the bridegroom to arrive. When he did show up, five were ready with oil for their lamps while five were sent scurrying to buy some. As a result, those who were not ready missed the opening of the doors and were locked out of the wedding feast. "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour," Jesus admonishes us. Are you awake? Will you be ready to enter the wedding feast when the door is opened to you? There is nothing wrong with enjoying God's creation and gifts here on earth, but we must guard against getting so caught up in the things of this world that we forget to prepare for the next.

PRAY The ten virgins needed oil for their lamps to be ready for the bridegroom, but we need a clean heart and a steadfast spirit, as Psalm 51 tells us. (12) We get that by setting aside regular time for prayer and making a point to regularly receive the sacraments, including the reception of the body and blood of Jesus in the Eucharist and his forgiveness within the sacrament of reconciliation. Making time for the Lord now will mean we are ready for his return later.

Originally started by Jeanne Lenzner some 25 years ago, this group serves those needing prayers well. If you would like to have prayers said on your behalf and/or be a prayer warrior, contact Donna Carpenter at 307-250-6258.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Eucharistic Adoration is an invitation by Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament to spend time in prayer and presence with Him, to adore Him, to make reparation to His Sacred Heart and to petition Him for our needs. Eucharistic Adoration is a time when one can come face-to-face with Jesus, the Lord of all creation. Jesus looks at us and we look at Him fully present in the Blessed Sacrament. Eucharistic Adoration is an opportunity for us to take time out of our busy lives to come and rest in the Lord.

Once again, we have numerous Holy Hours in need of filling. Please consider accepting one of the following Hours to spend with Jesus:

The following are Holy Hours in need of filling: Tuesday @ 2pm, 3pm & 4pm, Friday @ 9am, 11am, noon & 3pm.

“One of the most admirable effects of Holy Communion is to preserve the soul from sin, and to help those who fall through weakness to rise again. It is much more profitable, then, to approach this divine Sacrament with love, respect, and confidence, than to remain away through an excess of fear and scrupulosity.” - St. Ignatius of Loyola

LIVING AND GIVING 2023

If you haven't already done so, please prayerfully reflect on how you might contribute to the Diocese of Cheyenne annual appeal: Living and Giving in Christ—Unity through Diocesan Ministries. St. Anthony's is now at 50% toward our parish goal of $80,410; St. Theresa is at 51% toward its goal of $3,437.00; Clark remains at 28% of its goal of $5,194.00.

The purpose of Living and Giving in Christ is to acquire regular, annual contributions to generate vital and dependable financial support to secure funding for essential ministries in every parish in the Diocese of Cheyenne. You may give online at <https://dcwy.org/living-and-giving-in-christ>.

Also, we send out the bulletin and other announcements weekly to those for whom we have email addresses. This is beneficial as an electronic copy of the bulletin cuts down on our paper cost and waste. Please call the office with your email: 587-3388.

SPECIAL EVENTS MINISTRY

Special Events &
Feasts

If you're looking for a unique way to get involved in a ministry at St. Anthony's, this may very well be your opportunity. The Special Events Ministry would assist in the Church & Brady Hall on the special occasions when we have Night of Remembrance, Processions, Appreciation dinners, St. Anthony Feast Day celebration, etc. The time commitment would be minimal throughout the year but extremely valuable. A group of 3-4 individuals would be sufficient to effectively manage this ministry. Please call the Office to express your interest or with any questions.

Have you dropped your nets to follow Jesus?

How are you accompanying and sharing your faith with others?

When Jesus called Peter, he dropped his nets and left everything behind to follow him. It began with an encounter — a relationship- — with Jesus, and it would lead to places Peter could have never imagined.

We invite you to embark on a journey of discipleship, reflecting on our own story of faith and discovering how we walk with others. St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Casper is partnering with Sherry Waddell and the Catherine of Siena Institute in offering this powerful series on discipleship and evangelization.

To register, scan the QR code or register online at: www.osvhub.com/st-patricks-casper/forms/forming-intentional-disciples-making-disciples
