FIRST SUNDAY OF Advent

DECEMBER 1, 2024

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Central Theme: Advent is a time of waiting for Christ, allowing Jesus to be reborn in our lives. It is also a time for purifying our hearts by repentance and for renewing our lives by reflecting on and experiencing the Several Comings (Advents) of Christ into our lives. Besides coming into our world through birth, Jesus comes into our lives through His church and its members, through the Sacraments—especially the Holy Eucharist—the Word of God, the worshipping community and finally, in His Second Coming.

Scripture lessons summarized: In the First Reading, the Prophet Jeremiah waits and hopes for an ideal descendent of King David who, as the Messiah of God, will bring security, peace and justice to God's people. Christians believe that Jeremiah's waiting and hoping were fulfilled in Jesus. Jeremiah's prophecy assures us that the Lord, our justice will fulfill His promises and hence, that we need not be afraid, despite frightening events and almost universal moral degradation.

The Psalmist expresses the central ideas of patient, vigilant, & prayerful waiting for the Lord in today's Responsorial Psalm (PS 25) singing, "Your ways O Lord, make known to me; teach me Your path, guide me in Your truth and teach me for you are God, my Savior."

In the Second Reading, Paul urges the Thessalonians to continue and intensify the life of Holiness and mutual love he has taught them as they wait for "the coming of our Lord Jesus with all His Holy Ones."

In today's Gospel, Jesus prophesies the signs and portents that will accompany his Second Coming and encourages us to be expectant, optimistic, vigilant and well prepared: "when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads, because your redemption is at hand" (Luke 21:28) Jesus wants us to face the future with confidence and God's providence.

Life messages:

1. We need to prepare ourselves for Christ's Second Coming by allowing Jesus to be reborn daily in our lives. Advent gives us time to make this preparation- repenting of and confessing our sins, renewing our lives through prayers, penance and sharing our blessings with others.

2. A message of warning and hope, the Church reminds us that we will each be asked to give an account of our lives before Christ the Judge, both at the moment of our death and at Jesus' Second Coming. Always be firm in our Christian faith that Jesus is always with us.

Let us prepare ourselves for the meaningful celebration of Christmas.

Blessed Advent, Father Heston

FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

First Sunday of Advent

Jer 33:14-16 | 1 Thes 3:12-4:2 | Lk 21:25-28, 34-36

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Are you one of those people who flips to the end of the book to find out what happens or maybe you roam the internet for spoilers of your favorite show? We have all been tempted to know what is going to happen before whatever it is unfolds, especially in tension-filled situations. Knowing the ending changes the way we experience the angst of the present moment, especially if it's a great ending! Like today: even as we anticipate and know the comfort and joy of the Advent season, we certainly do not begin there with our Gospel reading from Luke. In it, Jesus describes the coming of the Son of Man: this time will include moments of dismay, tribulation, assault, fright, and death. Contemplating this time of justice can be fearsome, but it is also a source of joy, because Christ is coming! We know that through Christ we have been redeemed - and that, if we remain faithful to him, we have the hope of eternal life. As Luke tells us, we can stand with our heads held high because redemption is at hand. Our Advent does not start with comfort and joy, but it sure ends there. Knowing this ending helps us have confidence and hope in God.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

We are encouraged and challenged by the Word and our Advent traditions this first week to remember how it ends! In our first reading, the prophet Jeremiah relays consolation to the nation in crisis when God tells them the days are coming when the Lord will "fulfill the promise." This will bring them much-hoped-for safety and security. In Luke's Gospel, Christ's coming will be with "power and great glory" and although it sounds somewhat frightening, it will usher in redemption. Those are some spoilers providing great confidence and hope. In addition to our readings, the lighting of our first candle this Advent season is a visual reminder of the culmination of our salvation story! The Light who has come into the world has and will dispel the darkness. We can stand erect and raise our heads together to glimpse this light of Advent and fill our hearts again with hope that God surely is the one who keeps his promises. That is the best spoiler of all.

SING

*O come, divine Messiah!
The world in silence waits the day
When hope shall sing its triumph
And sadness flee away*

“
*The Light
who has come into the world will dispel the darkness.*
