GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I know people who read the ending of a book before they are finished with it. I could never do that! I have to follow the story in every detail until the final page. When it comes to the story of our salvation history, however, we get to do a little of both: we know the end of the story in terms of Revelation and God's desire for us to live with him in eternity. We know of the heavenly kingdom to which we have been invited and in which we live. What we don't know is all the details that get us to our own, individual, final page in the great drama of our response to the gift of salvation. In the first reading today, we hear the story of the fall of humankind - about how our earliest parents rejected God's command and gave into temptation. However, the story doesn't end there. Adam and Eve may have been sent out of the Garden of Eden, but God didn't give up on them - or us. Instead, he sent a long line of prophets who paved the way for his Son, Jesus. With Jesus' sacrifice on the cross, the gates of heaven were opened so all have the opportunity to accept the gift of salvation. As St. Paul writes in his Letter to the Corinthians, we can know "that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Paul's words give us great hope and encouragement, for we all know that living as God commands can be difficult. We are assured, however, that grace and strength are ours if we only ask the Holy Spirit for guidance. As Christians, we are part of the body of Christ and a community of believers. In today's Gospel, Jesus notes that a house divided against itself cannot stand. That's a reminder that we are all in this together. We need one another - and the grace of God - to bring us to everlasting life in heaven. In the Gospel Jesus asked, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And we heard the answer: those who do the will of God. Let us open our hearts today to receive the promptings and grace of God, so we may follow him to the best of our ability each day. The story of salvation is our story, and we know what the ending is meant to be.

PRAY As members of the body of Christ, perhaps there are ways this week we could be praying alongside our brothers and sisters in our church or community. In addition to Mass, consider Eucharistic Adoration or a prayer group. Reflect on how God might be nudging your heart.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Eucharistic Adoration is an invitation by Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament to spend time in prayer and presence with Him, to adore Him, to make reparation to His Sacred Heart and to petition Him for our needs. Eucharistic Adoration is a time when one can come face-to-face with Jesus, the Lord of all creation. Jesus looks at us and we look at Him fully present in the Blessed Sacrament. Eucharistic Adoration is an opportunity for us to take time out of our busy lives to come and rest in the Lord.

Message from Father Hugo:

As I travel around the Cheyenne Diocese from parish-to-parish, one question that comes up from time-to-time is, "What happened to the soul of my loved one who died without receiving the sacraments?" Then, family members will go on to explain why they are asking that question. A parent was in the hospital close to death and a priest wasn't available to administer the Last Rites. An infant died before the child could be baptized. A close relative died before the annulment process could be finished so that their present marriage could be validated in the Catholic Church. A family member didn't go to confession before their death. The question asked comes out of concern for the deceased loved one, and it is an expression of faith in the Lord Jesus.

Jesus gave these sacraments to the Catholic Church to give grace to meet our need for spiritual support on our spiritual journey, especially when facing our death. When a situation arises where there is a need for the Sacrament of Anointing of the sick, for example, we do whatever we can to call a priest to administer the Sacrament. If a priest is not available in this emergency situation, we can believe that the Lord Jesus will administer the Sacrament to meet that need. The Lord's Hands are never tied because of a human condition where we are not able to meet that need. The sacraments were never intended to give us reason to become anxious or worried. We try to do our best in those situations, and then trust that the Lord will do His part. None of us knows what the future holds, but we know Who holds the future. Do not be afraid!
