Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ez 17:22-24 | 2 Cor 5:6-10 | Mk 4:26-34

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

If we walk through the woods on a beautiful spring day, we'll see the signs of life bursting forward. Green shoots coming up from the ground, leaf buds poking out from the branches of a tree – even the birds and animals are busily scampering. Life, growth, and new beginnings are all around. Today's readings have a common theme of nature as one of the ways we can experience God's design. Like the crowds Jesus taught, we may not know the exact cause of what makes a plant grow from a tiny seed to a towering tree, but that's OK – we don't have to know. As St. Paul writes, "we walk by faith, not by sight." We trust the Lord to lead and guide us. And, like the harvester in the parable, we can observe, tend, and act when the time is right to bring in the harvest, for, as Paul continues in his letter: "We aspire to please [God]."

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

What does it look like to play an active role in bringing in the harvest? Faith is a lifelong journey, and everyone is in a different place. The delicate shoot needs different care than the full-grown tree. In prayer, God can speak to us to help us discern the best way to help the people he has put in our lives. Perhaps we offer encouragement, or a shoulder to lean on. Maybe someone needs a friend to converse with. No matter where or who we are, each one of us can be like the harvester that Jesus references, observing and acting as appropriate, helping support the seed of faith God plants in each person. And as we heard in the Gospel today, the smallest seed can become the largest of plants; therefore, our work is plentiful as laborers working to help build God's kingdom here on earth.

PRAY Pray for the wisdom to recognize where you are in your journey, what you need to keep growing, and how you can offer to help others.

Lord God, fill me with your gifts and put your words in my mouth, that through them, others may be filled with the power and warmth of your love. Amen.

Eucharistic Adoration is an invitation by Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament to spend time in prayer and presence with Him, to adore Him, to make reparation to His Sacred Heart and to petition Him for our needs. Eucharistic Adoration is a time when one can come face-to-face with Jesus, the Lord of all creation. Jesus looks at us and we look at Him fully present in the Blessed Sacrament. Eucharistic Adoration is an opportunity for us to take time out of our busy lives to come and rest in the Lord.

Message from Fr. Hugo

One area of ministry that I've been involved with over the years as pastor has been helping parents who have lost an infant through a miscarriage, stillbirth or an abortion. No words can adequately describe the pain of loss that the parents go through when the pregnancy ends at the death of the infant. Not only is there the physical death of the infant but also the death of the vision that the parents had for their child.

Those of us who have worked in this grief ministry have learned that parents want to hear the same loving words from God that He spoke to Jeremiah the Prophet (1:5), "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you..." Through a brief ceremony of naming and commending the deceased infant to the Lord, they gift back to God who He had given to them even if for a short time. Any priest, deacon and lay minister can lead this brief ceremony. A certificate is then given to the parents that has inscribed the name they have chosen for their child, the name of the parents, the signature of the minister of the ceremony, and the date when the naming and commending took place.

If you are a parent, grandparent, sibling, uncle, aunt, or friend who is grieving the loss of an infant, feel free to contact Fr. Heston or one of the deacons who can lead you through this brief healing ceremony. When you select a name for the infant, don't worry about the gender of the deceased child. Then ask the Lord to send the guardian angel of the deceased infant to join your personal guardian angel in protecting and guiding you.
