THE FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

He hushed the storm to a gentle breeze, and the
billows of the sea
were stilled.”

(Ps 107:29)

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

St. Boniface, an English Benedictine monk who died in the 8th century, wrote in a letter: “In her voyage across the ocean of this world, the Church is like a great ship being pounded by the waves of life’s different stresses. Our duty is not to abandon ship but to keep her on her course.” Oceans and seas, lakes and rivers, baptism. The role of water in daily life and its use as a metaphor are woven throughout our Scriptures. In today’s readings, we hear two references to the sea. First, we have God talking to Job out of a storm, reminding the prophet that he – the Lord – is the one who created the seas and keeps them firmly in their place. The Gospel passage provides us with a stark reminder of that truth. As the disciples and Jesus cross the sea, a storm crops up and threatens to sink their boat. But one command from Jesus and the water is still. St. Boniface had it right. We really all are on that ship with Jesus on its voyage across the ocean of this world, and trusting in him to keep us on course and safe from harm ensures we reach the destinations he intends for us.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

How to do our part to keep this great ship that is the Church on course? Trust in Christ, trust that he is present within us and guiding us each day. No one is immune from stormy seas, and like the disciples, we can turn to Jesus in times of peril. He asked the disciples: “Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?” Like the disciples, we must experience the change of heart that is necessary to place complete trust in Jesus to replace our fear and anxiety. God has things under control. Of course, that is what can be so scary sometimes. I know God will take care of everything, but what if I don’t like how he does it? What if I want him to answer my prayers one way and he answers them a different way? This is where Jesus might ask me: “Do you not yet have faith?” And I would have to reply, “I’m working on it.”

PRAY We are assured throughout Scripture that God loves us, cares for us, and sustains us. But how do we move from knowing that in our heads to feeling it in our hearts? Prayer. If we center our life on Jesus and his commands, trusting in him will become second nature. Take some time this week and pray with today’s Psalm (107:23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31), which praises God for his love for us and gives voice to trusting in his providence.

Prayer for Healing through the Father's Love

One part of the healing ministry that I was involved with over the years was to compose prayers for various needs. Some of these prayers have been used at retreats and in other settings. Recently, I composed a prayer for healing through experiencing the love of God the Father. This prayer was inspired by a nun I prayed for at a retreat for healing years ago as she was struggling with concerns over whether she was conceived in love. For the first time in nearly 50 years she was able to feel that she was conceived in love, in God the Father's love.

“Lord God, You are the Creator of every human person. You have made each and every person in Your own image and likeness. You created us in love. You have a plan for our lives which is to spend eternity with You and with all Your faithful followers.

“Your will is that each and every human person be conceived in love—Your love. Your love is best expressed between husband and wife when they share themselves with each other physically, emotionally, sexually, and spiritually. The fruit of their love is the conception of a child. You, Creator God, have called husband and wife to be co-creators with You in conceiving a child. In marriage, husband and wife perform a sacred act that gives glory, praise and honor to You.

“Lord God, not every child is conceived in love between father and mother. A child might be wounded from the moment of conception when human love is absent. You tell us, Lord Creator, that Your love for each one of us was present even before we were conceived and formed in our mother's womb. You knew us and you called each of us by name.

“Because of the stain of Adam's sin upon our souls, we are wounded and we are in need of Your grace and mercy. You sent Your only Begotten Son, Jesus, to show us the Father's love. Your Son, Jesus, has redeemed every person. You, Lord Jesus, are our Healer who comes to heal every wound. As our Divine Healer, Lord Jesus, remind us that the Father's love was present at the moment of our conception. Each and every human person was conceived in the Father's love.

“You, Lord Jesus, tell us not to focus our attention upon how much, or even how little, love was present between our mother and father at the moment of our conception. God the Father's love was present at the moment of our conception. We need to accept the Father's love and His heavenly embrace to heal any wound or hurt that we might have received, if there was an absence of human love from our parents.

“At this very moment, You, Lord Jesus, are able to walk back in time to the moment of our conception and to stir up in our hearts the Father's love that was present. As our Wounded Healer, You can bring new life, new energy, new hope, and new strength as You heal any memory of the painful past. As the Potter, You can reshape and restore us into the image and likeness of God the Creator. Your Holy Spirit can set us free from any bondage that keeps us from coming to know the Father's love. Amen.”

Composed by:

Father Hugo L. Blotsky, O.S.B.

July 2013

Addendum as of December 2022:

In my prayerful reflection, the Lord seems to have given me an insight into why so many people are turning to cults, the occult, wicca, witchcraft, magic and other dark arts, alcohol and other drug culture, secularism, the tattoo culture, Satanism, atheism, pornography, non-Christian religions and philosophies, and life-styles that are contrary to natural law. Without being fully aware of what is going on in their thought processes, they seem to be questioning whether they were conceived in love between their biological parents. I find that they don't have the language to express the struggle and questioning whether they were conceived in human love. These are not bad people, but people who are searching for meaning and purpose in life.

This leads to a question that they usually don't ask, or don't know how to ask, or don't know whom to ask: “If God is such a loving God, why didn't He protect me from being conceived and born into an unloving relationship?” This questioning becomes more intense if the individual was conceived as a result of rape or incest, or was conceived outside of marriage or outside a committed relationship. Or, if the biological parents communicated to them that they were a “mistake” or an “unwanted pregnancy.”

This questioning is leading them to seek a community or group from the world of darkness where they hope to be accepted, be shown love, and be given a sense of belonging. Their hope is that this community, group or new “family” will protect them from having to deal with a God who wasn't there for them when they needed protection and love, which is how they perceived their entry into life and their first experience with human interaction. What they are seeking is available to them in loving Christian communities, and they don't know this.

Many thanks to everyone who helped make our craft show a success: the Knights of Columbus, Annie's, creative crafters and artists, and all the individuals who assisted in various ways. And thank you to Father Heston. The quilt winner was Cheryl Mundis, a compassionate CNA who works at the Hospice House. May God bless all of you! Peg Pond Paul (Next year's craft show will be Feb.28th & March 1st.)
