AUG. 3, 2025 SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading	ECCL 1:2; 2:21-23
Second Reading	COL 3:1-5, 9-11
Gospel	LK 12:13-21

THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

INTRODUCTION: The common theme in today's readings is the futility of the greedy acquisition of wealth and power because everything and everyone is "here today and gone tomorrow."

SCRIPTURE LESSONS: The First Reading, taken from Ecclesiastes, reminds us that the greedy acquisition and hoarding of material wealth is useless because, when the hoarder dies, he goes to eternity empty-handed, and his heir gains, and perhaps squanders, his riches.

In the Second Reading, Paul directs our attention to lasting, Heavenly treasures and warns about the influence of idolatry. He advises, "Put to death, your parts that are earthly: immorality, impurity, passion, evil desires and the greed that is idolatry."

In today's Gospel, Jesus, telling the parable of the foolish rich man, warns us against all types of greed, because greed takes our life's focus away from God and away from serving and loving Him in Himself and in other people. Jesus says that God calls the greedy rich man a fool because the man thought he would not die soon and that he was not accountable for the way he used his riches. Besides, the rich man forgot the fact that his wealth had been lent to him by God for sharing with the needy.

LIFE MESSAGE:

1. We are invited to share our blessings with others. The parable of the rich man gives warning as well as invitation.
2. Let us control our greed. Our greed takes different shapes and forms. Greed takes the form of excessive and sinful indulgence in eating, drinking, gambling, drugs or sexual activities.
3. Let us share with one another whatever we can regarding our wealth, talents and time.

God Bless,

Father Heston

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ecc 1:2; 2:21-23 | Col 3:1-5, 9-11 | Lk 12:13-21

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

A few years ago, I heard this witty but thought-provoking phrase: “You never see a U-Haul attached to a hearse” – a reminder that we don’t get to take our physical belongings with us when we die. This phrase came to mind as I read today’s Gospel. Jesus offers us a parable about the perils of placing our ultimate hope in amassing possessions. In our own lives, we might be challenged or inspired by the quiet example of people around us who demonstrate that material things aren’t what matter most. From individuals who lose their possessions but express gratitude for their physical safety to the child who hears about others in need and gathers up items from their own room to share, we glean gentle reminders that in the end, stuff is just stuff. Pondering this, what we’re left with is an invitation from Jesus to look inward: Where are our hearts in relation to our material possessions? Do we cling to them tightly, or do we hold them lightly? What does it mean to be “rich in what matters to God”?

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

The antidote to our disordered attachment to material things is to cultivate Gospel simplicity. In sending his disciples out to spread the Gospel, Jesus often instructed them to “pack light”: “Take nothing for the journey, neither walking stick, nor sack, nor food, nor money ...” Jesus told his disciples (Lk 9:3). Instead, they were to go into the surrounding villages and rely on the hospitality of those they encountered to provide for all their needs. By carrying nothing with them, they learned to rely on God’s providence and to intentionally reach out to others from a place of vulnerability and humility, both necessary in sharing the Gospel. While we aren’t necessarily called to be itinerant preachers as the disciples were, we can take up Jesus’ call to “pack light” as we strive to share the Gospel with others in our daily lives.

REFLECT

What can we learn from the disciples about overcoming the temptation to think that we are self-sufficient, as if sharing the Gospel depends entirely on us, rather than his grace? How might we adopt a simpler lifestyle, so that others see in us a living witness to the fact that our hope is not here in this world, but in the life to come? Reflect about how to live Gospel simplicity more intentionally in your life this week, and what that might offer for your efforts to share the Gospel with others.

Make a will. Make an impact rooted in faith.

August is National Make-A-Will Month, and there's no better time to create or update your will. Nearly 67% of American adults don't have an up-to-date legal will. Writing a will or estate plan can prevent family conflict, eliminate confusion, helps communicate funeral wishes, and ensures your assets go to the people you most want to have them. In short, a will gives you control over your legacy. Currently, the Wyoming Catholic Ministries Foundation is offering parishioners an opportunity to create a legally binding will or estate plan for free using a resource called FreeWill. FreeWill is a simple to use online tool that can help you plan ahead in about 20 minutes. This resource makes it easy to protect the ones you love and put your faith into action.
